How to make it

1. Process the cookies in a food processor just until crumbly, for about 1 minute.
2. Combine the marshmallows and butter and melt in a microwave for just 3 minutes, add the cinnamon and the cookie crumbs and stir until well coated.
3. Using buttered spatula or wax paper evenly press mixture into a sheet pan coated with cooking spray. Cool and cut into squares.
4. Microwave the chocolate for 20 seconds then take the bowl out and give it a stir. Place the bowl back in the microwave and repeat the process of cooking for 20 seconds, stopping, stirring and returning to the microwave until the chocolate has melted then drizzle on top of each square.
